Hello Dominic Robert,

A new user account (ticketing system) has been created for you. This will allow you to sign in and follow your requests.

Please click on the following link to complete the Activation

You will have to create a new password to use in the ticketing system.

Please take note that the Username required to connect to the ticketing system is the email address used to send you this message.

The direct link to access the ticketing system is Here. We invite you to add it to your favourites.

Thank you.

You must enter your password and confirm it.

You will receive a second email to confirm the configuration. You may now access the knowledge base from this link: <https://ext-atom.acceo.com/>

We recommend that you save the address to your bookmarks.

We strongly recommend to use Google Chrome, it can also work on other browsers (Edge, Safari Firefox).

To connect, enter the following information:

- Username is your email address.
- Password was created previously.
